

John's Journal

For the past twenty years, come late January, I get my stuff all packed up and make my way to attend the annual conference of the Association of Presbyterian Church Educators or APCE. I have been privileged to serve in several leadership roles in APCE over the years, but having rotated out of those roles last year, this year I was able to go and just enjoy the conference, without running myself ragged. Yes, I did have a workshop to lead (which went very well), but not having to tend to the business of APCE was very freeing and rejuvenating.

I mentioned on Sunday how enthused I was to see so many younger people attend the conference, and how I see this is a positive sign for the future of the church, and especially Christian Education. Each time we gathered as a community - whether it was worship, plenary, meals, workshops, or fellowship - there was an unbounded energy that permeated the entire event.

Knowing that these younger people will be the ones who will be telling our story to the next generation(s), is heartening and joyful!

And the bonus in attending these conferences is the chance to be with my dear friends from across the years and to renew and strengthen those friendships. So, thank you for giving me the opportunity and the time to participate in this event. I hope I will be able to utilize what I gleaned from it over the next few months.

One thing that I discussed informally with colleagues there is what their churches are doing in regards to live-streaming their worship services. Several people made reference to my doing the "Facebook Live" streaming of my sermon back on January 8th when we had to cancel worship because of the snow. Many watched the stream, and others decided to take my lead and do the same thing.

I have been amazed at the response to my delivering my sermon in this unique way. According to the metrics that are available on Facebook, there were over 300 "views" of the live stream on that day. Now, whether 300 people actually watched the entire thing, is yet to be determined.

But the fact that over 300 people at some time or another at least saw part of it, is rather remarkable.

In meeting with the Bethany NEXT Work Group a couple of weeks ago, in our ongoing focus on looking for ways to upgrade and expand our mission and ministry, we talked about the live stream experience back in January, and where that might take us.

I shared with them my conversations with several colleagues in the presbytery who were live-streaming worship services now, and about the extremely positive responses they have all had to this. In looking into this possibility for us, I (we) have found that it is rather easy and relatively inexpensive to do. And think about what this would mean to folks who have to miss worship, or who are out of town, or who have family and friends far away who might want to participate in our worship service in this unique way. The possibilities certainly are endless.

And so, once the NEXT group nails down what the costs would actually be, and gets more details, they will present this to the Session for its consideration.

As we move now into the second month of our 125th Anniversary Celebration, let us not be satisfied with the status quo and to just sit on our hands. But let us instead always look for new and creative ways to tell our story and to communicate with those far and near about who we are as people of God and disciples of Christ.

As we move through February and then into Lent, let us do so always with an eye to the future and what lies ahead!

Grace & Peace,

John

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 19TH - 6:00 PM

EVERYONE INVITED AND ENCOURAGED TO COME!

Are you interested in serving your church in a very unique way? Well, there's a spot for you! The Bethany NEXT Work Group is seeking new members who are committed to the future growth in ministry and mission of Bethany Presbyterian. The group usually meets monthly (except around special events) and usually for a meal!

This group was formed in 2014 by the Session to serve as sort of a "long-range planning" group - but one that is looking at all aspects of Bethany's ministries - from facilities, to programming, to stewardship, to worship, and everything in between. The group continually tries to answer the question, "What's NEXT?"

Don't you want to be a part of and have a voice for the future of Bethany? Come and serve in this unique way. If you have an interest, or have any questions, please see John at any time. He can be reached at the church at 336.227.4041, or on his cell at 336.214.5859. Or, shoot him an email at

IS LIVE STREAMING COMING?

Sunday, January 8th saw us wake up to several inches of snow on the ground, which led us to cancel worship on that day. For those who are on Facebook, John was able to present his sermon live at 11:00 (from his dining room!). The response to this has been overwhelming! Following up on this positive response, the Bethany NEXT Work Group is investigating the possibility of live-streaming our worship services each Sunday. Many churches (including smaller churches like Bethany) are offering this as a ministry to those who are unable to attend worship, or who are out of the area and desire that connection with "back home"!

Surprisingly, the per-month cost is less that one might think. There would be some up-front expense of getting the equipment purchased and installed. Stay tuned as more information is gathered, and the Session determines what is best for Bethany and our ministry!

Worship

Attendance

What You Need to Know

The saying goes that "where two or three are gathered . . ." and it is certainly true that God is present and active wherever we gather as God's people, and no matter how many people are there.

And although we affirm the idea that "numbers don't matter," we also recognize that having people in the pews on Sunday mornings does indicate that lives are being fed and that it is important to be here.

We have been invigorated by the resurgence in attendance over the past couple of months - especially during December. And so, we would like to celebrate that by sharing our attendance numbers in this space each month - showing worship attendance figures for the past few Sundays. And a special thanks goes to Glenn Patterson and Rick Purcell, who do the recording of attendance each Sunday. Here are the recent figures:

- December 24 (Christmas Eve) - 46
- December 25 (Christmas Day) - 41
- January 1 (New Year's Day) - 63
- January 8 - Snow - Church canceled
- January 15 - 53
- January 22 - 67
- January 29 - 64

Do you have high cholesterol or high blood pressure? Have members of your family suffered from these ailments? Do you have a poor diet? If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, you may want to consider being screened for your risk of stroke through the services of Life Line Screening. Life Line Screening uses ultrasound technology to view the plaque build-up in your carotid arteries, the main arteries that carry blood to the brain. Blockages in these arteries are a leading cause of stroke. We are pleased to host this Life Line Screening event on February 20, 2017 at Bethany Presbyterian Church. Register for a Wellness Package with Heart Rhythm for $149. All screenings take 60-90 minutes to complete.
